

FROM THE PASTOR: "UPDATE ON REOPENING"

In last month's newsletter I wrote about our preparations for reopening for worship. I even spoke about how COVID-19 hospitalizations were decreasing in Arizona. What a difference one month can make! All statistics about COVID-19 infections in Arizona are dramatically on the increase. Unfortunately another member of our church died of COVID-19 in the last couple of days. My prayers and thoughts are with her family.

As your church we want to keep you safe. We plan on continuing to worship online. We will also continue to prepare for the day when we eventually reopen.

Our bishop has notified us that in order for him to allow United Methodist Churches to open in our Annual Conference the following criteria needs to be met:

- Reopening begins when state and local officials have reported a 14-day downward trend of cases.
- Hospitals are treating patients without crisis care
- There is a robust testing program in place, including antibody testing.

As you can imagine we are still waiting for a decline to happen. Our survey found that the majority of our members are in favor of waiting to reopen. Many people have told us that they are glad we are not reopening. I will keep you informed of our progress.

Even though we are not worshipping in person many ministries still continue to effectively operate. On Monday, July 13th at 6:30 pm I will hold a new member class online using Zoom. If you would like to join the church, please contact the church office or myself and we will send you the new member material and the Zoom login number so you can attend. Don't worry we can help with the technology if needed. We will even take in our first new member group online. That will be a learning experience for all of us.

Our Church's finances continued to improve with the May report. We are only 1% lower than the giving level of last year. I say a big thanks to those who continue to support the ministries of our church. .

I will see you online on Sunday.

Grace and peace,

Fred

You are invited to join me online

Many Biblical characters needed a second chance. And when you think about it, they needed a third chance, fourth chance and...

In this five-week sermon series, we will take a look at how Jesus was the master of giving a second chance. And when He did, lives were transformed. Jesus even said, "For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost." (Luke 19:10)

DISCIPLE II UPDATE

Congratulations to the members of the Disciple 2 class led by Dr. David Worley. He said it was a privilege to lead, as they began as a group studying Disciple 1, and have continued to study and fellowship together since that time.

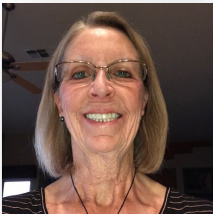

They have been saddened to lose some of their members due to illness and also death, including Vance Giovanni, who was a faithful part of our group until he went to be with the Lord. We intend to move on together to study Disciple 3 in the fall.

SPECIAL BAPTISM

Pastor Katharine was privileged to baptize Hannah Elisabeth Xuan Morawa in the family's swimming pool on June 1st. Pastor Fred videotaped as Hannah read her statement of faith, answered the baptismal questions, then was immersed in the water. Family and a neighbor were present to celebrate.

DING DONG DASH STILL RINGS!

Pastor Katharine began her surprise "Ding Dong Dashes" where she rings the doorbell at one of our church kid's house, leaves a small bag with a ding dong and other treats, and takes a selfie with the kids. If your child has not yet received a visit, contact her by email (ladiebug1214@gmail.com.) Fun times... check out the following photos of Pastor Katharine with a few of our church kids!

UPCOMING STUDY

Pastor Katharine will be leading a Zoom Bible study on racism/white privilege in the next couple of weeks. We will let you know dates and times as soon as we know. More than likely this will be a book study, so we want to give you plenty of time to either order it or get it on Kindle once we decide for sure on the resource. Stay tuned, but in the meantime, here is something to think about: (An excerpt from a blog by Susan Cottrell when asked by a Caucasian friend to explain white privilege)

1. White privilege is being able to move into a "nice" neighborhood and be accepted not harassed, made to feel unwelcome, or prone to acts of vandalism and hostility.
2. If you've never had a defining moment in your childhood or your life where you realize your skin color alone makes other people hate you, you have white privilege.
3. If you've never been "the only one" of your race in a class, at a party, on a job, etc. and/or it's been pointed out in a "playful" fashion by the authority figure in said situation, you have white privilege.
4. If you've never been on the receiving end of the assumption that when you've achieved something it's only because it was taken away from a white person who "deserved it", you have white privilege.
5. If no one has ever questioned your intellectual capabilities or attendance at an elite institution based solely on your skin color, you have white privilege.
6. If you have never experienced or considered how damaging it is/was/could be to grow up without myriad role models and images in school that reflect you in your required reading material or in the mainstream media, you have white privilege.
7. If you've never been blindsided when you are just trying to enjoy a meal by a well-paid faculty member's patronizing and racist assumptions about how grateful black people must feel to be in their presence, you have white privilege.
8. If you've never been on the receiving end of a boss's prejudiced, uninformed, "how dare she question my ideas" badmouthing based solely on his ego and your race, you have white privilege.

COFFEE WITH THE PASTOR... ONLINE!

Those thinking about making Gold Canyon UMC their church are invited to attend the next Coffee with the Pastor on Mon., 7/13 from 6:30pm–8:00pm online! Along with Pastor Fred, we'll look at the beliefs of the United Methodist Church, our church's history, and ministry opportunities. No reservations are needed, but you will need to get instructions on how to join and receive your handouts.

We will be meeting using Zoom, an online tool that allows us to video conference using a laptop, tablet, smart phone or a computer with a webcam. Instructions on how to connect and get a copy of the handouts emailed to you, contact the Church Office at (ChurchOffice@GoldCanyonUMC.org or (480) 982-3776).

Once you receive your instructions, you will be able to test your connection and equipment at any time before the actual event. We highly encourage you to try the video connection, as it will make for a much more effective meeting.

We'd love to have you join us and be a part of GCUMC's Ministries!

CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

Sherry Hussein

"...Growing disciples of Jesus Christ and living the Word."

Hello to all our church families and children! WOW...it's July already... hot and getting hotter these days! Hope you are all enjoying activities inside with your family, staying cool. If you have a swimming pool, that's great, just remember...never swim alone, unless supervised, sunscreen is a must, and drink plenty of water to stay hydrated (not the pool water).

Speaking of water, for the month of July I will be mailing Bible lessons, activity pages, and summer fun crafts, all relating to "WATER". We all need water to live, that's why it's important to conserve as much water as we can.

Thank you to all the Sunday school Teachers, the parents, and the children, for participating in our zoom chat sessions. It really has been great fun to see you all on screen, "zooming" with everyone. We had fun with the Elementary age children, matching pets & their owners. Ms. Jan presented some pretty amazing Bible lessons, along with parables Jesus taught us. Zoom chats with the Preschoolers are so exciting, and uplifting. Ms. Shelley with her chicks, Ms. Kristina sharing some Bible lessons with us, the children sharing special things, a new puppy, their pets, painted rocks, children's Bible book, their favorite stuffed animals, and so much more...just warms your heart, big time! The parents and children have been watching church services, and children's messages with Ms. Katharine online. One family said, "We watch it several times during the week."

I recently sent our older children a booklet "Walking with Jesus", in hopes it encourages them to talk to Jesus every day, to pray, and to know Jesus can help us get through everything. Most important of all: TRUST IN GOD! Here are some quotes about trusting God, may they help you also:

"God has perfect timing, trust Him."

"The more you trust God the more He amazes you."

"Whatever is worrying you right now, forget about it. Take a deep breath and trust in God."

"Faith is trusting God even when you don't understand His plan."

So with all this, I leave you in good hands...Give it to GOD.

I really miss seeing everyone at Church services, especially the children. Take care, be safe, and let us all "Be a Good Samaritan" by helping others, loving them, just as Jesus loves us. — Love & blessings, Ms. Sherry

SIDEWALK CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Sidewalk Children's Outreach Ministry serves children in the Apache Junction area, and meets on Saturdays, October-April. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers, during this extended time of social distancing. With several of the recreational facilities now open, children will be able to enjoy time at the public library, area parks, and pools. We continue to keep in touch with families in the ministry, through text messages, phone calls, and home visits to deliver Bible lesson activities & such items for the children.

Many of the families in Sidewalk are grateful for our GCUMC Food Bank. A few families stop by for a meal at Genesis during the week, also a meal on Saturdays at Desert Chapel UMC, Family Feast. Desert Chapel UMC hosts our Sidewalk program at their Church campus. Some of the teens, and a few parents in the ministry also volunteer at DCUMC, helping set up for meals on Saturdays. Many thanks to our congregation at Gold Canyon UMC, that have continued to support this children's outreach ministry. If you would like to know more about Sidewalk Children's Ministry, please contact Sherry Hussein, (480) 529-9621, or Bev Stout, (480) 926-6479.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2020

Our VBS program Rocky Railway "Jesus Power Pulls Us Through", originally set for June has been cancelled for the summer. We are hoping and praying to have a traditional VBS Program October 5th-9th during the local elementary schools' Fall Break. We are also looking at different ways to present our VBS Program, depending on the need to continue following social distancing.

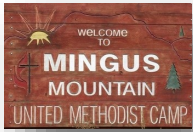

VBS is free and open to children ages 3 1/2 (potty trained) through 5th grade. Registration Forms will be available from August 15th and available from the Church Office, online or by mail. Parents, Grandparents, and Guardians, we look forward to your bringing the children to VBS this Fall for an amazing, uplifting experience... and lots of fun too!

We still have volunteer openings for: Crew Leaders, Storytellers, Photographer, and Decorating team. Please contact Sherry Hussein at (480) 529-9621 for questions and volunteer openings. Please keep the VBS ministry in your prayers, all things are possible with God, may we all be together and back to our Church soon.

NO SUMMER CAMP AT MINGUS MOUNTAIN

Many of you have already heard the announcement from Pastor Fred the Gold Canyon UMC will not be sending children to camp this summer. This decision has been made out of concern for the health and safety of all UMC Church families.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED

We are so grateful for your generosity in past years, with donations of school supplies for children in need. In talking with a few school staff members, they foresee the need will be greater this school year. With your generous help, we would assure that the children have what they need to start school. Apache Junction/ Gold Canyon schools are scheduled to resume classes on July 21, and the following is a list of needed items:

- Boxes of tissues
- Large bottles hand sanitizer

- Scissors (medium size)
- 2" & 3" 3-ring binders

MUSIC NOTES

Dr. Ian Classe, Director of Music Ministries

July's Greetings! I know we've all seen a number of unsettling things over the last month or so, but it is important to remember that so much is in God's hands. As we work together to try and move forward during the COVID pandemic and deal with our issues as a nation, take solace in the fact that much of our community is unified together in Christ. Speaking of our nation, our nation's birthday will be arriving shortly on July 4th so stay safe and healthy during your celebrations and have a happy Independence Day!

As many of you know, we continue to hold services online and so our music staff is staying very involved in coordinating our efforts on that front. As part of those efforts, I'd like to invite any musicians with previous musical experience who are interested in the possibility of performing for the online services to contact Cindy Hoff, Assistant Director of Special Music, and or myself as we coordinate our soloist list moving forward. All that we need is to listen to you sing or perform on your instrument and see what possibilities there are for you in the musician rotation. We aim for a no-pressure experience and there is no commitment for future participation in any aspects of the music program but you're certainly welcome!

Finally, I only have one question to answer this month as I've only received one! That question is "How do you structure your Improvisations for Sundays?"

The structure of improvisations can vary widely. Sometimes an artist may simply perform a 'Free Improvisation' which means that he or she basically just does whatever comes into their head. Another option is a 'Theme and Variations' where I will play a theme at the beginning, then treat the theme in different ways in each 'variation.' There are also various musical forms such as Song form or Sonata form which are divided into sections or where each section sounds a little different and may even take parts of a 'theme' and develop them in different ways before bringing the theme back at the end. With all these different options any improvisation even on the same tune will sound different from another.

As always, questions and comments are welcome and I hope you all have a relaxing summer !

Peace and best regards,

Ian

GLOBAL MISSIONS

Fay Quanstrom, Associate Pastor

VIRUS IMPACTS GLOBAL MISSIONS

How has the virus impacted Global Missions? Greatly! With wide-spread travel restrictions and advisories, churches are hesitant to endorse travel to work sites within the U.S., to say nothing of international destinations.

Rice & Beans in Costa Rica (Fred Curry):

Rice and Beans Ministries has reduced its staff and developed a new ministry model that is less dependent on groups. The staff continues to feed people with the produce it is cultivating .

Mobility Worldwide in Zaire (Sandy & Delbert Groves):

Where missionaries Sandy and Delbert Groves distribute PET units for Mobility Worldwide and teach at the African Bible College, work continues within the limitations on travel and personal contact .

Fellowman International in Honduras (Lisa Armstrong):

Fellowman International serves a population already struggling with dengue fever cases before the virus made headlines. Protective gear is almost impossible to obtain, putting health care workers at additional risk. Interestingly, 2/3 of the cases in Honduras are in one of the Honduran states, with the 27-59 age group being most heavily affected, and men more often taken ill than women. Fellowman International continues to care for the sick, provide dental care, support education, feed people and equip them to feed themselves by learning to raise gardens, hogs, and poultry for their community's use .

In each setting our prayers are needed for the health and wellbeing of these dedicated full-time missionaries. Pray that they will be able to stretch the reduced, available finances so that the work of sharing God's grace and love in many ways can continue. Pray that they will not become discouraged, but will see God's faithfulness every day. That's the "last word"--PRAY, and thank you for doing so.

Gold Canyon United Methodist Church supports these Global Missions:

PASTORAL & CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Dr. David Worley

Deb and I met a neighbor on our morning walk the other day who had just undergone a knee replacement and was out walking to regain mobility. We stopped an appropriate distance from him and chatted for a moment, and I said as we bid him goodbye, "I will pray for you." He was sincerely appreciative. We have seen him multiple times since and he is progressing very well. At one point I reminded him, "I have been praying for you as promised." Again, he was clearly grateful.

Now, I know that saying these words can be empty when unaccompanied by action. But, they need not be. For, I remind you that one of the best ways to show authentic care for one another is to pray for one another. It is not a last but first resort.

Paul often requested fellow Christians pray for him and thanked them for doing so. May I encourage you to pray for one another? Then, take the next step and send an email, text or call those for whom you have prayed and just tell them, "I prayed for you today." That's Christian love in action.

... AND ON THE COUNTRY SIDE

Summer is in full swing and the Arizona heat confirms it!

Several people have asked me the same question, "When will we gather for worship again?" I understand the longing we have to rejoin one another in public worship; I feel it too. But, I would like to remind you that public worship, while encouraged and modeled in Scripture is vital, it is no substitute for private worship.

Please don't wait for a worship service to offer God worship. If you're asking how you may do this, I suggest finding a worship Psalm like Psalm 100, 103 or 104 and read it aloud to God. Or, sing the words of a beloved hymn to Him such as "How Great Thou Art." Play Christian music you enjoy and sing along, but sing the song directly to God. You may also silently meditate upon His daily mercies, His grace and the gift of His Son the Lord Jesus Christ. Perhaps you can literally make a written list of that for which you are grateful.

Don't wait for us to re-gather for public worship or Sunday's online services to worship; engage worship daily because Our God is worthy of our worship now and forever and this will lift your spirit, as well.

PUTTING "IT" INTO PERSPECTIVE

Every now and then circumstances take me full circle and have me digging up some thoughts from a past article. Forgive me for that, but although some of these thoughts are from about 4 years ago, they certainly apply today. If your memory is like mine, maybe you won't feel like you've read some of this before!

The year 2020 has already been quite a year hasn't it? Even if you aren't an individual who spends a large part of your day with your attentions fixed to a television, radio, computer or some other form of information dispensing media, you cannot avoid hearing and knowing there is a lot going on in the world, and in particular affecting the United States.

If you're like me, even though some of the barrage of information we are hit with or interact with daily may not directly be pointed toward you, you find that it affects you. It can evoke strong emotions of sadness, anger, passion, or discontent – and if we're not careful it can leave us with an overwhelming sense that there isn't a lot of hope. We can allow information overload to cloud our vision of what is important, or sometimes cloud the truth.

The truth is, often we need to pull ourselves back and regain some perspective. Perspective is defined as "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something; a point of view". When we are feeling unsettled, maybe we need to look around us, at our daily interactions and relationships - the ones we have control over. When we pause, observe and really see what our daily relationships are all about, we can almost always regain our perspective and hope. We quickly recognize that there is more good than bad, more spiritual than evil, in those around us.

When we focus on ourselves, and what we exude, we realize we can make a difference. When we act like a Christian, making who we are clear to those around us, we are astounded by the results. When we love others and portray God's message, even in the face of negativity and adversity, hope lives.

A Christian young man posted a video several years ago in the aftermath of a tragedy. It quickly went viral and when I last saw, it had millions of views. His most resounding, critical message was "I refuse to see hate live, while love dies." I for one agree with him, and refuse, as well. But I also know that in reality it can be difficult to not worry, and to maintain hope, depending upon what is going on in our lives and what we see around us.

Pastor John Ortberg in The Me I Want to Be: Becoming God's Best Version of You, sent a powerful message - "Never worry alone. When anxiety grabs my mind, it is self-perpetuating. Worrisome thoughts reproduce faster than rabbits, so one of the most powerful ways to stop the spiral of worry is simply to disclose my worry to a friend... The simple act of reassurance from another human being [becomes] a tool of the Spirit to cast out fear -- because peace and fear are both contagious." Reading that certainly makes me want to exude peace, over fear. However, it's not always as easy as just saying I'm going to do it.

Whatever "it" might be in your life that needs a fresh look or a little perspective, please remember that God has placed 4 pastors in your path to be there for you. They minister to members and friends of Gold Canyon UMC. Please simply call the church office at (480)982-3776 and one of them will respond to your request. After hours, you may call or email one of the pastors directly. You will find their contact information in the bulletin (currently emailed to congregants prior to the Sunday on-line worship services), church office or the Pastoral and Congregational Care page of this newsletter.

*"Those who live in the shelter of the Most High

This I declare about the Lord:

*He alone is my refuge, my place of safety;
he is my God, and I trust him.*

~ Psalm 91: 1-2 (NLT)

"If we all threw our problems in a pile and saw everyone else's, we'd grab ours back."

- Gowns for San Carlos Apache Tribal Social Services: One of GCUMC's members, Nam Morawa, is the Director of a medical clinic located about 20 minutes east of Globe for the Apache Tribe. They are currently looking for people who can sew gowns for their Tribal Social Service Department. ## CANYON CONNECTIONS MINISTRY

During this COVID pandemic and social distancing, are you feeling alone? One of our new ministries, "Canyon Connections," helps people thrive through this crisis and beyond.

Isolated individuals are paired up with other persons who also feel alone, and encouraged to call and talk to each other daily. Women are paired women with women; men with men. If people don't feel like they are connecting with their assigned person, they can contact the Church Office and they will be reassigned. If you would like to connect another in our church, please contact the Church Office.

YOUR MINISTRY & MISSIONS STORIES MATTER... SO PLEASE TELL THEM!

HOLY LAND TRIP

RESCHEDULED JANUARY 4-17, 2022 ($3,498)

The Holy Land trip with Pastor Fred has been rescheduled due to the coronavirus to January 4-17, 2022. If you have already paid a deposit, then it can be left on file and you will automatically be moved to this new trip date. If you would like to withdraw from the trip, you can contact Educational Opportunities and they will fully refund your deposit. For those who have paid the initial deposit, this means that the second deposit is not due until July of 2021. All trip details will remain the same and new brochures will be coming out soon. Pastor Fred would be glad to answer questions or email a brochure if you contact him at revstein78@gmail.com or leave a message with the Church Office.
