

FROM THE PASTOR: "STAYING CONNECTED"

One of our biggest concerns is staying connected with all the people who call Gold Canyon UMC their church. Many of you have found that connection through our online worship services, online gatherings and online classes. Yet we still need to strengthen the connection for those who don't have a computer, internet or a smart phone.

About three weeks ago we started producing DVDs of our worship services. We are recording both the morning service and the country service on one weekly DVD. The problem is getting the word out to those who don't get our Saturday emails or other online communications.

You are invited to join me online
Thursdays at 11:00am to spend an informal time talking and connecting.

To participate:

<https://zoom.us/j/713204749>

If you are unable to worship with us online or you know of someone who is unable to participate in worship online, please let us know. This newsletter may be the only way we have to get this news out to those who have been unable to join us for worship for four months. We are willing to deliver these DVDs on doorsteps or mail them as needed. We are also willing to supply DVD players to those who don't have a way to play the DVDs. In this time of social distancing, we don't want people to be distanced from their church and God.

If you know of someone who doesn't seem to have access to our worship services, please let us know. We are willing to call them and offer DVDs to anyone who needs them.

I will see you online (or on DVD) on Sunday.

Grace and peace,

Fred

MORNING SERMON SERIES "THE CHURCH HAS LEFT THE BUILDING" August 2nd—August 23rd

*We left the church building over four months ago.
That action can help our faith and Christian witness.*

*The Church never was the building.
The Church is the people who used to worship

In August we will focus on what it means to be the Church away from the building.

LAST OF THE DING DONG DASHES!

Pastor Katharine wrapped up her surprise "Ding Dong Dashes" where she rang the doorbell at one of our church kid's house, left a small bag with a Ding Dong and other treats, and took a selfie with the kids. Fun times... check out the photos of Pastor Katharine with some of our church kids!

Please RSVP to the Church Office as to which Zoom class you plan to intend. It is important to note the Zoom links below corresponds to the time of the session:

- 1:00pm Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/98754674513>
- 7:00pm Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/97880267833>

You are certainly welcome if you don't sign up ahead of time; and the link will always be available each Sunday. One doesn't have to attend all 5 classes in order to benefit from the insights of the presenters and our ensuing discussions. This is a great opportunity to think outside our comfort zone and live faithfully as we see our Lord at work in our midst: "For it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose." (Philippians 2:13 NIV)

KOFFEE WITH KAT!

We miss each other – that is obvious! Realizing we are, in many ways, being held "hostage" by the virus for a time and can't visit in one another's homes, Pastor Katharine is offering you an opportunity to have a one-on-one coffee chat via zoom with her on Monday, Wednesday or Friday mornings at 9:00am for no longer than one hour. There is no agenda – if you want to see a friendly face with a smile, want to share what's going on in your life, need to vent or just desire prayer, she's there for you.

You will need to sign up for your day by sending her an email at ladiesbug1214@gmail.com and she will provide you with a Zoom link. Whether you are in town or out of town, it would be great to spend some time together! So... bring your cup of coffee or tea and touch base! (Couples may sign up together, if they wish — and children are also welcome!)

"LISTEN TO THE ETHNIC VOICES" CLASS

Pastor Katharine invites you to join in any of the three remaining Zoom sessions of this 5-part video series presented by the General Commission on Religion and Race of the United Methodist Church (GCORR). The commission offers us the opportunity to address the realities of race and racism in a series featuring contemporary theologians, sociologists, laity, clergy, and other thought-leaders with challenges of race, culture, and oppression in the Church and world today. Hopefully our participation in viewing these videos will jumpstart the discussions that follow the videos. Our

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!

The first online Coffee with the Pastor gathering was July 13th using Zoom, and resulted in five new members. If you are thinking about making Gold Canyon UMC your home, be sure to watch the bulletin for an announcement for information on the next gathering.

WOMEN'S FALL RETREAT... WE'RE GOING VIRTUAL!

Come Zoom with us as we explore – for the first time – meeting virtually for our Fall Women's Retreat. We are planning for a Friday evening and Saturday day, so please save the dates of Friday, 10/23 and Saturday, 10/24 for this event. Our theme is "Come to the Water" and exact start and finish times have yet to be decided. Pastor Fay will be doing her creative curriculum writing for this, along with logistic planning assistance from Pastor Katharine and Riechia Ralston. More details will be available in the September newsletter, as well as the opportunity to sign-up. It should be fun! Please contact Pastor Katharine if you have questions.

UPCOMING DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDIES

DISCIPLE is a program of disciplined Bible study aimed at developing strong Christian leaders. The study gives the Old and New Testaments equal time, emphasizing the wholeness of the Bible as a revelation of God. DISCIPLE draws upon the work of scholars, the personal Bible reading and study of the participant, and dynamic group discussion to aid understanding of the Bible. As far as time commitment, one usually spends 30-45 minutes daily in preparation for weekly group meetings; and the meetings themselves run an average of 2 – 2 ½ hours.

NEW Disciple classes will begin virtually in September. Reminder: Disciple 1 must be taken before going on to the other options. After taking Disciple 1, you may attend any of the other classes in no particular order. We hope you will seriously give thought and prayer to joining one of the following classes:

- DISCIPLE 1 — Tuesdays at 1pm; Facilitator: Deane Elek; Starts September 22
- DISCIPLE 2 — Tuesdays at 1pm; Facilitator: Rev. Fay Quanstrom; Starts September 22
- DISCIPLE 3 — Wednesdays at 1 pm; Facilitator: Dr. David Worley; Starts September 23

To register, please email the Church Office ChurchOffice@goldcanyonumc.org, specifying which class. Workbooks ($40) may be picked up at the Church Office on Fridays; or if you are out of town, register by September 9th to receive it in the mail before class starts. Payment can be made by check or cash — by mail or our dropbox — preferably before the classes start. If you cannot afford a book, please email Pastor Katharine at ladiesbug1214@gmail.com.

CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

Sherry Hussein

"...Growing disciples of Jesus Christ and living the Word."

Hello to all our wonderful Church families! We hope you are all doing well. August is here, with schools starting up, children shifting into their learning mode, thinking caps on, absorbing all kinds of new knowledge. Now is the time to nourish those bodies & minds, keep growing, thriving, and stay healthy. Of course you will need plenty of rest to do your best! Take some time to talk with Jesus; saying a prayer before you go to sleep is always good, and you may have a special prayer. I enjoy talking to God in the morning as I wake up. Just knowing that God will be with me all day long is comforting. "Give all your worries and cares to God, for He cares about you". 1Peter 5:7 (NLT). God is "The One who cares about you, He has the biggest heart, the utmost compassion, the greatest resources, the ultimate understanding, and the deepest love!"

We will be continuing our Zoom chat sessions. It is so much fun to see the children interact with each other on screen — especially the toddlers, preschool, and young elementary-aged children. I always look forward to our interesting conversations, trivia questions, and Bible lessons with the older elementary children. Thank s to the parents for letting your children participate.

I am praying for God to keep us all healthy and safe. God is good! He still performs miracles. I am missing you all!

SIDEWALK CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Sidewalk Children's Outreach Ministry serves Apache Junction area children and meets Saturday mornings during October-April. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers. The children started online school in July. We continue to keep in touch with families in the ministry through text messages, phone calls, and delivery of Bible lesson activities to their homes.

Sidewalk Children's Ministry has special memories of Jim Ritenour while he served our God, throughout his volunteering with the Sidewalk Children's Ministry. "Mr. Jim," as the children referred to him, and "Ms. Marcia" were both "Shepherds" in Sidewalk. For several years Mr. Jim transported children from their homes to the Sidewalk ministry sites in Apache Junction on Saturday mornings. Driving the Church bus or van with Ms. Marcia, his co-pilot who would help with directions, they got the children onto the vehicle with seat belts buckled and ready to go.

Jim was a soft-spoken man, who seemed to enjoy transporting the children. One summer, Jim & Marcia drove the children to Mingus Mountain Camp. Jim also did the maintenance on the Church vehicles, always making sure they were "up & running," keeping them clean, both inside and out. Jim and Marcia were always willing to help, especially when another driver/rider would cancel. Jim would always say, "just call us if you need us, if we're home we'll be there."

"Mr. Jim was always nice when he picked us up, he never hollered at us, even when some kids were kind of loud on the bus." — Leslie

"I liked Mr. Jim, he was cool, let us talk & have fun on the way to Sidewalk, he just said "make sure you have your seat belts on." — Yadir

"Mr. Jim was nice, when he dropped us off at home, he would wait until we got inside our house, my Mom really liked that, and Ms. Marcia always waved good-bye." — Enaya

"I feel sad Mr. Jim died, hope Ms. Marcia is ok, he will be in Heaven now." — Alex

We will all miss Jim very much. He was kind to everyone: a true servant of God, and a wonderful "Shepherd" in our children's ministry. With sincere and loving memories — all the Sidewalk Volunteers and the Children

Many thanks to our GCUMC congregation who has continued to support this children's outreach ministry. To learn more about Sidewalk Children's Ministry, contact Sherry (480) 529-9621 or Bev (480) 926-6479.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2020

We are hoping and praying to have our VBS program, Rocky Railway's "Jesus Power Pulls Us Through", October 5-9, 2020, during the Elementary Schools Fall Break. VBS is free and open to children ages 3 1/2 (potty trained) through 5th grade. Registration forms will be available later this month; be sure to watch for updates in the weekly bulletin. Contact Sherry Hussein at (480) 529-9621 for questions and for volunteer openings. Please keep the VBS ministry in your prayers... all things are possible with God.

SUMMER SERVICE PROJECT

HOW YOU CAN HELP

..."For children, from children... who are helping other children by donating clothing or shoes they have outgrown. It's a great time to go through your closet and drawers! Try on clothes and if they don't fit, donate them to another child in need! We will be giving the items to Apache Junction's Desert Chapel UMC's new missions project, a clothing closet for children. Scripture tells us that it's always more blessed to give than receive, and that God loves a cheerful giver. Contact Sherry SheriffSherry2000@gmail.com / (480)529-9621, to make arrangements to pick up donated items.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES DISTRIBUTION DAY

On Sat., Aug. 1st from 9:00am—11:00am parents and their children picked-up up school supplies through our GCUMC drive -thru. Schools are scheduled to reopen August 17th, and many of the children started their classes online in July. Getting ready for school can be very costly for families with clothing purchases, school supplies, and other expenses.

A very BIG thank you goes out to our congregation, who has been so generous in their donations of school supplies. Several people also made monetary donations for which we are grateful, as we could purchase additional items that were needed. Jacque Smith, Registrar at Peralta Trails Elementary School, said, "We are so thankful for the Church's donations of school supplies."

The schools now have an increased need to disinfect & sanitize areas daily, and we would like to continue collecting canisters of Clorox/Lysol wipes and hand sanitizer. Please drop these supplies off on/near the bench located outside the Church office door.

"COOL IT DOWN" DRIVE THRU EVENT

Our "Cool it Down" drive thru morning on Saturday, July 18th was great, and we got to see many of our church families. All of the children received a Summer Fun package with water squirters, pool noodles, bubble wands, snacks, and assorted items. Plus each family took home a Styrofoam cooler with snowballs, Icee pops, and frozen treats. Be sure to check out the photos below from this awesome event!

Thanks to all who participated, the Sunday School teachers and the volunteers who helped distribute the items... it was a super sensational morning!

MUSIC NOTES

Dr. Ian Classe, Director of Music Ministries

Time certainly does fly. At the end of this August 2020 will be my first year anniversary as Director of Music Ministries at Gold Canyon United Methodist Church. While I'm pleased with what we accomplished as a Music Ministry at the end of 2019 and beginning of 2020 with a great concert series, Christmas concert, and growing music groups, I certainly never expected my job to take such a strange course with the COVID pandemic. Not being able to rehearse any of our large groups has been a challenge but it has forced us to come up with alternative ways for our ministry to express itself and to support our worship. At the beginning of the pandemic, I stated that we probably would not attempt a virtual choir because of the video and audio editing time involved, but given that it may still be a while before we can get back to normal, I may have a few surprises for you in the coming months.

Just as a reminder, we're still looking to expand our music rotation, so if you're interested in participating in our online music ministry, please contact me or Cindy Hoff. We're doing everything we can to try to keep things fresh and worshipful. This month I have two questions that were sent in for me to answer:

The first is "Why does the music stand on the organ have green or black cardboard in the background?"

The green or black construction paper/cardboard is to prevent light from reflecting or glaring off the Plexiglas music rack. I suppose it's not strictly necessary right now given that there aren't any congregants in the Sanctuary during the service, but it also prevents any reflections from getting in my eyes too!

The second question I received was "Why is there a mirror sitting on top of the organ (console)?"

The little make-up mirror sitting (usually on the right side) on the top of the organ console is used for several different things. Pre-COVID-19, it allowed me to monitor anyone who might be processing up and down the aisle as well as the general number of congregants in the room. Knowing how much longer a processional or recessional will be is important for weddings or funerals to get the musical timing right. During regular worship services, the number of congregants in the sanctuary helps me to determine the registration for hymn playing. Fewer people means fewer stops, more people means a greater number stops generally (the organ is louder or softer, to best accompany the changing congregation size from week to week). During our current services and recording, I use the small mirror to see the person recording the video; they give me a cue when it is time to begin playing. The little mirror is very handy!

In closing, I just want to wish everyone the best and hope you're all still safe and healthy. As always, feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Peace and best regards,

Ian

BIG CHALLENGES FOR FELLOWMAN INTERNATIONAL IN HONDURAS

All of the below situations conspire to put extreme burdens on the public health system in this nation of 9.5 million people.

- Dengue Fever—An epidemic of this tropical, mosquito borne, viral disease was already sweeping Honduras before Covid-19 appeared. It causes debilitating headaches, painful joints and muscles, often accompanied by high hemorrhagic fever..
- Covid-19—The novel virus creates the need for medical care for hundreds of thousands of Hondurans. The Health Ministry has asked FMI to help as an infection rate of 40% is anticipated.
- Food shortages—Food purchases are allowed only one day a week as part of the country-wide curfews
- Strict curfews—Banking and grocery shopping are permitted only once a week on a rotating schedule
- Shortages of PPE and hospital bed space—Even basic equipment is unavailable and hospital bed space for critically ill patients is deficient. 36 ventilators are available in the whole country.
- Medical Emergencies—Accidents, precipitous child birth, and diseases other than Covid or dengue fever require attention that is often unavailable.

Fellowman International continues to serve the people of the remote mountain region through their clinics and traveling services. FMI encourages local food production with community garden development and raising protein (pigs and chickens). Feeding the children may mean the difference between life and death during this time of food shortages and disease.

GCUMC supports Fellowman International with budgeted giving and special offerings. Designated gifts can be directed to:

Missionary Lisa Armstrong
P.O. Box 2993
Salina, Kansas 67402

All of us have the opportunity to join in prayer for the effectiveness of this ministry in a nation where a living wage is $380 per month. but most families of five live on less than $220 per month. The homicide rate is one of the highest in the world.

MIDWEEK MOUNTAINEERS

Midweek Mountaineers is our weekly Wednesday program for students from 1st-6th grade and is open to children from GCUMC, their friends, and other children in our community. Midweek Mountaineers starts up again on September 16th and will run through the first week of May. We foresee starting our program online — a virtual Zoom session — on Wednesday evenings from 6:00pm—7:00pm. This program is spiritually uplifting and fun, and will include a Bible lesson, music, trivia games, and more. When we are given approval to meet in person, our program will meet in the Education Building on the GCUMC campus, start earlier, and include a dinner. Please contact Sherry for more details, at SheriffSherry2000@gmail.com or (480)529-9621.

If you've already paid your deposit, it can be left on file and you'll automatically be moved to this new trip date. If you'd like to withdraw from the trip, please contact Educational Opportunities and they will fully refund your deposit. Those who have paid their initial deposit will not need to pay the second deposit until July of 2021. All trip details remain the same and new brochures will be available in the future.

Pastor Fred would be glad to answer questions or email you a brochure if you contact him at revstein78@gmail.com or leave a message with the Church Office.

... AND ON THE COUNTRY SIDE

Dr. David Worley

With August comes a break from the weekly "live" C&W services. This gives our team a chance to regroup and recuperate.

However, in response to suggestions from others we are going to replay some of the earlier services that were livestreamed before we were unable to meet face to face. I have chosen five services to air each week that I hope will be a blessing to you. So, I invite you to enjoy these services again. Reviewing them, will, I am sure, not only bring back good memories of when we were able to meet together, but also foretell of the glad day when we will once again be together in public worship.

With the onset of September we will be back with new messages and music.

A NOTE FROM ONE OF OUR PASTORS

On July 3rd I turned 70 years of age; it was not a birthday to which I was looking forward. However, the day became a truly celebratory day because of family – both natural and spiritual. We enjoyed having our niece and great niece from Indiana here to visit and join the celebration dinner along with my brother-in-law and mother-in-law and one special friend.

But the highlight of the day came about 2:00pm when a caravan of cars drove by our house, honking and holding signs wishing me a happy birthday. After driving by, the 20 or so cars stopped and some members of our church family joined on the street (while keeping social distance and wearing masks) to sing Happy Birthday. How lovely to not only offer care to others but to receive it in return; it was a bit of a reversal. A day that I did not wish for turned into a day of good wishes. Thank you!

There are bigger lesson hidden in this story for us to see; I'll leave it to you to find them for yourself. But, here's a hint: hidden blessings - Dr. David Worley

CARING CORNER

Kim Shroyer

THE THREE "A'S"

In the midst of all of this craziness surrounding us right now, I read an article in which a psychologist was talking about anger. He was saying there was a potential for increased anger in individuals through all walks of life, as we navigate the current world crisis. Anger from loss of friends or family to illness, loss of work relationships, loss of freedoms, loss of weekend recreation, loss of jobs and livelihoods, loss of friendships and the sense of community, loss of church services and gatherings, loss of health and on and on... simply, loss.

Everyone responds differently to anger, some express it more outwardly while others hold it inward. It's been said that even those with the sunniest dispositions have been challenged recently. You may have seen some be a little less friendly, a little on edge, a little more short-tempered or just plain grumpy. I've found myself feeling this way some and have asked myself "what is my problem...my life is good...I am safe and healthy...what IS my problem??!!" You may have seen some scenarios where someone's righteous indignation about their position on a topic outstripped what was likely their normal ability to be empathetic to another. Things are just a bit difficult to navigate right now.

This same article talked about 3 things that could possibly assist us through this period, help us overcome feelings of unrest. It guided us toward 3 things: Affiliation, Aspiration and Appreciation. In reading the below standard definitions you may recognize that these 3 states seemed to come naturally to most of us just a few short months ago, but now maybe not so much?

- Affiliation - an act of connecting or associating with a person or organization; being closely associated with a particular person, group, company, etc.
- Aspiration - desire or ambition for which someone is motivated to work very hard; a strong desire to achieve something.
- Appreciation - a feeling or expression of admiration, approval or gratitude; sensitive awareness; recognition of aesthetic values.

Under normal circumstances, just going through life and our every day routines has naturally allowed us to have all 3 AAA's in our lives, even without putting a lot of conscious thought into it. Now it seems we actually have to make an effort to achieve those things.

After thinking about this more and more, and rereading these definitions, I've realized how important those 3 AAA's have been in my life. And I've realized how quickly their occurrence can fall by the wayside if not sought out, attended to and nurtured. As a result, I have renewed my focus and extended a personal challenge to myself to consider how I can generate new opportunities for those things in my life, albeit differently than they have existed in the past. Simple actions can help fill what may have become a void in my life, so rather than becoming down about what I can no longer do, I may just need to try doing 'it' differently.

We are all so very different in our personal positions, health, location and capabilities, but some ideas to "replace" activities we've lost might include:

- participating in the on-line bible studies, discussions with Pastor Fred, or starting your own group phone call, e-mail chain or chat with those whom you normally affiliate with in person
- take lawn chairs to a park and sit 15-20 feet away from a friend and talk
- welcome the new neighbors to the neighborhood, but with a box of Girl Scout cookies or store bought Oreos, rather than homemade
- visit a friend by showing up outside their window, then call them and greet them with a warm smile, message on a sign, etc. (if you need ideas, Pastor Katharine seems to have perfected this)
- if you've never liked to read, try it
- make a party train of vehicles, balloons, and banners and do a drive by parade for a friend's birthday
- tell someone why you appreciate them, with a card, phone call or drive by shout out

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The current pandemic is challenging people around the globe, and none more so than the poorest and most marginalized. The United Methodist

Women is meeting these needs as they usually do, with local, direct assistance and funding made possible by member donations. Immediate grants for food, hygiene, education, income projects and caregiving are supporting faith, advocacy and children's groups who have been directly impacted by COVID-19. The following are some areas that have received these emergency grants:

Ecuador was one of the first countries in South America to experience COVID-19. The country responded with a strict quarantine, which caused many to lose their jobs. More than 60 percent of the population rely upon agricultural production, temporary employment or in small food production businesses. Two hundred rural women without savings who are living in impoverished neighborhoods are benefiting from United Methodist Women's gifts. In addition, this United Methodist Women funding supports 40 women who have chronic disease problems through donations of food and emergency medicines.

In Sierra Leone vulnerable families in households headed by women initially were unaware of the basic and effective hygiene steps needed to prevent COVID-19. They were fearful of accessing health care or going to hospitals. The quarantine has affected single parent households the most and they have seen a rise in the cases of domestic violence. Through the partnership with Sierra Leone's United Methodist Women sisters, local women are providing psychosocial counseling, essential food distribution and hand washing supplies.

Cameroon has had over 10,000 of its citizens test positive for COVID-19. Many cannot afford fresh water, soap, or sanitation supplies. The United Methodist Women Association Cameroon now provides basic hygiene education and sufficient soap and resources to enable vulnerable families and individuals to prevent the spread of COVID-19. They have also designed, produced, translated into various languages and distributed more than 2,000 posters and fliers.

The United Methodist Women is truly for "such a time as this!"

"Do not fear, for I am with you, do not be afraid, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand." - Isaiah 41:10

- The Gold Canyon UMW continues to have weekly Zoom meetings Mondays at 10:00am and invites any woman to join us for fellowship, prayer, and support. For more info or to join, contact Carol Johnson CarolJohnsonAZ@yahoo.com / (602)750-2008.

FOOD BANK

The GCUMC Food Bank served 464 individuals in June. We continue to be blessed with the communities support. The Arizona National Guard helped us twice this past month. Once unloading food donations from United Food Bank and another time packing frozen proteins. We are still serving on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:00am—Noon. Donations can be made during these times. Thank you for your continued support. Many blessings and stay safe!

CANYON CONNECTIONS MINISTRY

If you are feeling alone during this COVID pandemic and social distancing, of our ministries, "Canyon Connections," helps people thrive through this crisis and beyond.

Isolated individuals are paired up with other persons who also feel alone, and encouraged to call and talk to each other daily. Women are paired women with women; men with men. If people don't feel like they are connecting with their assigned person, they can contact the Church Office and they will be reassigned. If you would like to connect another in our church, please contact the Church Office.

YOUR MINISTRY & MISSIONS STORIES MATTER... SO PLEASE TELL THEM!

Email your story to... ChurchOffice@GoldCanyonUMC.org

- set new goals and aspirations... walk that extra mile per day, paint that picture you haven't had the guts to try, possibly act on a church ministry idea you've had in the back of your mind
- act on the "imgonnas" in your life, you know, those things that when I have time "I'm gonna" try
- if you've always wanted to start a garden, start with one little herb, inside the house, you might surprise yourself
- spend at least one minute per day taking inventory of a sight or sound around you that you never paid much attention to before, can you find a new appreciation?
- send a picture to a group of friends each day, of something you appreciate, and ask them to reciprocate.

You might find that focusing on the 3 AAA's not only lifts you up a bit, but it may lift up others around you as well. However, if any of this sounds easier said than done, please remember that God has placed 4 Pastors in your path... (please finish with the standard paragraph)

As always, please remember that God has placed 4 pastors in your path to be there for you. They minister to members and friends of Gold Canyon UMC. Please simply call the church office at (480)982-3776 and one of them will respond to your request. After hours, you may call or email one of the pastors directly. You will find their contact information in the bulletin (currently emailed to congregants prior to the Sunday on-line worship services), Church Office or the Pastoral and Congregational Care page of this newsletter.

"Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer everyone."

It's the little things in life that matter the most. Appreciate what you have. Be grateful.
