

FROM THE PASTOR: "UPDATE ON THE FELLOWSHIP HALL"

During the last couple of years, the Trustees have continued to work on the design of our new Fellowship Hall. In the picture below this article, you can see the east side of the building. Our Building Committee has worked with the architect to sketch out the commercial kitchen. In addition, we adapted the building's floor plan and dimensions to fit our property. Unfortunately, during the Coronavirus shutdown, we delayed the design work, but now the Trustees will be moving forward with the project.

Over the last two years, the generous estate gift we earmarked for this project has grown to $882,000. We are not far from having half of the cash we need for the project on hand. We estimate that the building will cost $2.4 million to complete. We want to move forward with this project after we pay off our current indebtedness of $621,923.

Many functions will take place in this Fellowship Hall. It will be a place for lunches and dinners. Yes, we will be able to have larger Methodist potlucks! It will be the new larger worship space for our Praise worship and Country worship services. It will also be a gym for our children and youth. We are looking forward to this new addition so that we might expand our ministries.

I will see you in person or online on Sunday.

Grace and peace,

Fred

WHY CAMP?

Once again I had both the pleasure and privilege of leading campers during the week long camp at our Mingus Mountain Camp, nestled high atop (7600 feet) Mingus Mountain above Prescott Valley. I have been leading camps since 2006 when I first started here. We have had many students of various ages participate in different camps at this site over the years. I want to thank many of you who have donated to our camping ministry. Here is why I believe camping is an essential part of our children, youth, and adult life experience:

The real obvious reason is it puts us back into God's creation, where the distractions are: different species of birds, deer and elk roaming the forest and meadow, sounds of coyotes, star-filled skies without the glare of street lights...not electronic gizmos or cell phones.

Camp allows for a new community to be built, even if just for a week. Old friends may return, but more often than not, new friendships are formed...with people unlike oneself. Living together in camp encourages each participant to follow a covenant, so that communal living works at its optimum.

New experiences abound for so many of the campers – many have not ever fished, or taken night hikes in the woods, tented and other adventures off campus, played disc golf or got dusty in the gaga pit, had the courage to attempt zip lining, archery or climbing a rock wall. We may try new foods that aren't like home, we are under the loving care of adults who aren't our parents, and we get to participate in awesome huge group activities, that we can't do in our backyards.

Finally, and for me the most vital element, is hearing the Word of God spoken and sung in new ways and having interactive worship time...all outside. There is an opportunity to know Christ for the first time, pray with a counselor or in a small group and walk the labyrinth.

Although the summer opportunities are now past, I want to offer you – adult and kid alike – the chance to participate in our Conference's FALL FAMILY CAMP, October 15-17. I have planned this camp for a number of years and enjoy the different season – it's cooler and the for the most part the leaves on the trees have changed color. It's also a terrific opportunity for family bonding, although, we encourage couples without children to attend as well. In the September newsletter and bulletins I will have more details for signing up for the fun.

UPCOMING FALL CLASS (HYBRID)

Mike Paul is facilitating a short series of 2-hour classes (in-person & online) on Wednesdays at 9:00am (Arizona time) starting September 8th. The sessions are titled: 9/8—"Relationship with God"; 9/15—"God's Will"; 9/22—"God's Grace"; and on 2/29—"God's Holy Spirit." Please bring your Bible and a notebook. To sign-up to attend in-person and/or have your Zoom link emailed to you so you can attend, email ChurchOffice@GoldCanyonUMC.org. You may also sign-up at the Welcome Center or Church Office.

GCUMC WOMEN... SAVE THE DATE!

Come together for a "Mountaintop Experience!" Our Fall Women's Retreat is scheduled for October 22-24 at the beautiful Franciscan Retreat Center in Scottsdale. Registration will begin in mid-August and rates will be:

- Single Occupancy lodging room is - $140.00/per room/per night.
- A Double Occupancy lodging room s - $99.00/per person/per room/per night.
- Commuter (non-lodger) Dining Room meal prices are: Breakfast: $13.00/pp; Lunch: $16.00/pp; Dinner: $20/pp.

A Registration Form is on page 4 of this newsletter, and also available in the Church Office. If you will be attending the entire weekend, scholarships are available. Please contact Pastor Katharine in the Church Office with any questions.

SILENT AUCTION

Friends, if you recall, our 2020 Silent Auction that would have been held last spring, was waylaid due to COVID. Therefore, for the entire month of this September we will have the auction items — which were donated last year — displayed in the Sanctuary Lobby for bidding. We are still determining to which mission the monies will be allocated. For those of you "out-of-towners" who may be interested in bidding, we will be including photos, descriptions, etc., in next month's newsletter so you can participate, as well!. Additional details will be available in our September newsletter. Please direct questions to Pastor Katharine.

CONGRATULATIONS!

CHILDREN & YOUTH MINISTRIES

Linda Clise, Children & Youth Ministries Director

CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The children of Gold Canyon United Methodist Church have been enjoying themselves this summer by vacationing with their families to various locations. I always enjoy hearing about their trips when they return. Their eyes light up and they are so excited to share their adventures with me!

We are nearly finished with the first part of the Simply Loved curriculum and I am pleased with the response from the children, Sunday school teachers, and their helpers. One part of the curriculum is a memory verse for each month and the children have excelled at memorizing them!

We are still in need of Sunday school teachers during the 9:30am and 11:00am worship services. Ideally, a teacher would volunteer once or twice a month, but right now they are working every week since we need more! If you are interested in volunteering, please contact me at the church office or through email at LClise@goldcanyonumc.org. All of the curriculum and supplies are provided.

GCUMC YOUTH

What a busy summer our Youth have had! They attended a week of Outdoor Adventure Camp at Mingus Mountain with Pastor Katherine and enjoyed it very much. We recently attended a five-day retreat to the Prescott National Forest with 11 Youth, myself, and another adult staying in a cabin. It was such a relaxing time and a perfect opportunity to learn about God's plan for us (vs. our own plans) and time to bond with each other through fellowship.

The Youth ended the volleyball season with a win! I am so very proud of them. After not playing together for two years and having new inexperienced players joining the team, they really worked well as a team and helped and encouraged each other throughout the season. I am sure the after game treat at Dairy Queen may have helped just a bit.

School will be starting soon for them and so will their extracurricular activities. It truly has been a blessing for me to get to know our Youth and watch them grow and mature into lovely young adults!

MUSIC NOTES

Dr. Ian Classe, Director of Music Ministries

As we enter the month of August, I'm happy to say we've actually had some monsoon weather this summer. Though the occasional power outage or storm damage is trying, the water is much needed.

As I mentioned in last month's newsletter, the Music Department is working on some surveys to help us to improve worship and plan as we move forward. The Choir has received their survey and many of them have already completed it.

This August, we hope to send a congregational music survey out, near the end of the month so stay on the lookout for that invitation. Last but not least, the choir will resume regular rehearsals in September, so stay tuned for news about that and expect to hear them starting that month.

Continuing where I left off in the last newsletter, this month I'll be discussing the musical terms "rhythm" and "texture."

Rhythm is (from the Greek ῥυθμός, rhythmos) generally a movement marked by the regulated succession of strong and weak elements, or of opposite or different conditions. In more musical terms, rhythm is the timing of events on a human scale; of musical sounds and silences that occur over time, of the steps of a dance, or the meter of spoken language and poetry.

In some performing arts, such as hip hop music, the rhythmic delivery of the lyrics is one of the most important elements of the style. Rhythm is strongly related to and distinguished from pulse, meter, and beats which are different aspects of music affected by the previously discussed tempo.

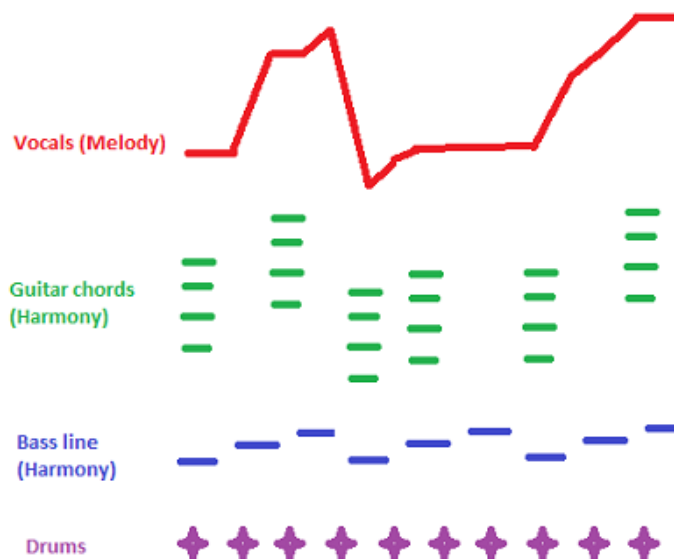

Rhythm may be defined as the way in which one or more unaccented beats are grouped in relation to an accented one. For example, you may have a 4/4 meter (4 beats per measure, and the quarter note is the note that is the primary beat) however there are notes smaller in duration than the quarter note (such as eighth or sixteenth notes) that fit together in different ways, while also fitting within the same amount of time as the quarter note.

RHYTHM GUIDE
 HOT DOG 	 GRAPE SODA 	 APPLE PIE 	 HOT FUDGE SUNDAE 	 COCONUT SHRIMP
 RICE KRISPIE TREAT 	 CHOCOLATE STRAWBERRY 	 CINNAMON OATMEAL 	 MILK AND CEREAL 	 AVOCADO TOAST
 CHEESE RAVIOLI 	 STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM 	 CHIPS AND GUACAMOLE 	 TATER TOT CASSEROLE 	 PEPPERONI PIZZA

Most music, dance and oral poetry establishes and maintains an underlying "metric level", a basic unit of time that may be audible or implied sometimes simply called the beat. The "beat" pulse is not necessarily the fastest or the slowest component of the rhythm, but the one that is perceived as fundamental: it has a tempo to which listeners entrain as they tap their foot or dance to a piece of music.

Rhythm relies on the relationship between discrete segments of notes and the overall beat. Rhythm can come across as being very straight, and simple depending on the piece of music, or it can be much more complicated with many different divisions of the beat and many different durations of notes. It can also be syncopated which is where stress is given to the weak beats instead of the strong beats, surprising a listener with a pattern that they don't expect.

Musical texture is how the tempo, melodic, and harmonic materials are combined in a musical composition, determining the overall quality of the sound in a piece. The texture is often described in regard to the density, or thickness, and range, or width, between lowest and highest pitches, in relative terms, as well as more specifically distinguished according to the number of voices, or parts, and the relationship between these voices (or instruments).

For example, a thick texture contains many 'layers' of instruments or voices. One of these layers could be a string section or another brass. The thickness also is changed by the amount and the richness of the instruments playing the piece. The thickness varies from light to thick. A piece's texture may be changed by the number and character of parts playing at once, the timbre of the instruments or voices playing these parts and the harmony, tempo, and rhythms used.

Different styles and genres of music have different characteristics when it comes to harmony, rhythms used, as well as tempo, and texture. In the upcoming survey, there may be a question or two that will be related to video links. It is my hope these videos will give you the opportunity to experience a few different styles and genres of music, as well as gain a better understanding of the characteristics that come together to define a certain genre or style. This will help us to converse in the future about music in church and I hope encourage you to participate as you're able.

If you have any questions, feel free to email or call and I do hope you'll take a look at our survey when it's available .

Best regards,

Ian

GLOBAL MISSIONS

Fay Quanstrom, Associate Pastor

What began in 1994?... What has produced over 90,000 units? What has recipients in 106 countries? What has 70 distribution partners? What is better than a wheelchair? What serves the "leg disabled"? What has 30 affiliated workshops? What is experimenting with resin components?

...And the answer is... Mobility Worldwide, a ministry that reflects the love of God by bringing the gift of mobility and dignity to those in developing countries who are unable to walk. Formerly known as PET, Mobility Worldwide grew out of a 1994 trip by Methodist missionary Reverend Larry Hills to Zaire, where he first recognized the need for the device when he encountered survivors of polio and landmines who could not walk, but could not use wheelchairs in their rural environments. Hills and his wife Laura spoke with Reverend Mel West about a modified wheelchair that might serve, hand-cranked with three wheels. During 1995, West involved product designer Earl Miner in producing a prototype built with an eye to sturdiness, simplicity and cost effectiveness. In 1996, four prototypes were put to the test in Zaire. Based on their performance, PETs went into production and were shipped for distribution in Zaire.

The following year, cart production began to expand into other countries, starting with Mozambique. In 2000, to meet growing demand, a facility was built in Columbia, Missouri which serves to receive donated parts, assemble carts and ship them internationally. A second US facility was opened in Penney Farms, Florida USA (near Jacksonville) that same year. In 2003, a third facility was established in Luling, Texas. In 2004, to help manage the growth and production of carts, PET International was incorporated, with a Board of Trustees and staff to help manage all issues related to assembling and distribution. The cost of the components for a mobility cart is roughly $300.

Carts have been shipped to Afghanistan, Afghanistan, Argentina, Armenia, Angola, Bahamas, Bangladesh, Belize, Benin, Bolivia, Bosnia, Botswana, Brasil, Bulgaria, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cambodia, Cameroon, Chad, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Democratic Republic of Congo, Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe, Djibouti, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Fiji, Gabon, Gambia, Gaza, Georgia, Ghana, Guatemala, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Haiti, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Ivory Coast, Jamaica, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Kosovo, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Latvia, Liberia, Madagascar, Malawi, Mali, Mauritius, Mexico, Micronesia, Moldova, Mongolia, Morocco, Mozambique, Myanmar, Namibia, Nepal, Nicaragua, Niger, Nigeria, North Korea, Pakistan, Panama, Papua New Guinea, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Republic of Congo, Romania, Russia, Rwanda, Samoa, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Republic of South Sudan, Swaziland, Syria, Tajikistan, Tanzania, Thailand, Togo, Tonga, Trinidad, Turkey, Uzbekistan, Uganda, Ukraine, Uruguay, Vanuatu, Vietnam, West Bank, Western Sahara, Zambia, and Zimbabwe.

GCUMC supports Mobility Worldwide through General Budget, as well as direct individuals giving in honor or memory of special people. To date GCUMC has sponsored close to 100 mobility carts. If you would like to check out what a mobility cart looks like you can see one in the Lobby of our Education Building.

Our regular prayers include the recipients and distribution partners of the carts, missionaries Sandy and Delbert Groves in Zambia.

ON THE COUNTRY SIDE

Dr. David Worley

As we move into August, we will be sharing videos of past services each Sunday of the month except for August 22. On that Sunday at 4pm we will gather for a Sing-a-long, which many enjoy; although we have not been able to hold this event for well over a year. As we have in the past, we will gather in the Koinonia Room of the Education Building to sing old hymns and Gospel songs that many tell me they sang during their childhoods. There is no sermon, no solos, just congregational singing for about an hour. We have a prepared list of songs from which we choose, and with the help of the Wranglers along with my piano accompaniment, we will sing together. We hope many will plan on joining us as we lift our voices to offer our God praise in song!

... AND ON A PASTORAL NOTE

I read some interesting statistics recently: 82% of people who are invited to church are somewhat likely to attend but 98% of people who regularly attend church have never invited an unchurched person to attend with them; this means that 7 out of 10 people who do not regularly attend church have never been invited to do so in their whole lives. What a shame! But also what an opportunity! I have heard several people in our congregation mention an observable decline in attendance at all of our worship services that is unusually low even for summer. What's the answer? Perhaps it's as simple as inviting others to attend with you. Maybe they will decline but how will we know if we don't at least try? Even more importantly, our invitation may be the very thing that eventually leads those who we invite to church, to respond to the invitation of our Lord Jesus to follow Him.

HOLY LAND TRIP ($3,498)

RESCHEDULED OCT. 18-27, 2022

Our trip to the Holy Land trip is set for 10/18-10/27, 2022, with the Jordan Petra extension scheduled from 10/28-10/31. This change means the weather will be more moderate for our trip since October is typically pleasant and mild in Israel.

All travelers leaving their current registrations intact will be automatically moved to the new trip dates, and you won't have to resubmit deposits or complete a new form. An updated brochure should be available soon.

I think we are making a smart decision by making sure that world travel is safe for all of us during these last days of COVID-19. I am really looking forward to this trip.

If you have any questions feel free to me at revstein78@gmail.com or leave a message with the Church Office.

SPEAK UP

I haven't been in Arizona for the past 3 months. Being in a different locale makes you view some things differently. You meet different people, some who think like you, some who don't, some who understand you, some who don't, some who talk like you, some who don't. What does that mean?

On its face, it means I often find myself wondering how to bridge some of the gaps I run across...how to find common ground when I think there is none...how to make a difference when it really wasn't what I was setting out (consciously) to do that day...and ultimately how to make the decision to not judge, vs. to judge. Because whether I'd like to admit it or not, I fall into that human fallibility of looking around me and sometimes "judging" others. The judgment I am speaking of doesn't necessarily have to be extremely negative – but I think our human tendency is to walk into a room, assess those around us, and categorize them somehow – what some might call a first impression. But it is a judgment, nevertheless.

A couple of weeks ago I was on a restaurant patio at about 4:00 in the afternoon. The weather was great, and we had finished eating when my phone rang. There were a few people seated around us and I quickly decided I should move to another table, so I could talk more freely and not disturb others. Who knew that this would be a defining moment of sorts?!

As I was seated, after completing my call, a woman who had been at a table near me earlier walked up to my table and said, "Excuse me." I must admit that my default thought process was instantly something like "Oh my gosh, what did I say, was I too loud, was there something I said that offended her?", and so on. I probably thought this way because quite often my experience has been that people only take that step out of their comfort zone in such settings IF they have something negative to say.

Then she really shocked me. She looked at my husband and I and said something along the lines of "I just wanted to tell you that I think you have a profound presence. The way you carry yourself and the sound of your voice is very calming...". Wow! This story isn't about what she said, it is about why she decided to say it! She is my new hero. What she said to me, after literally only 2 minutes of observation (and NO substantive conversation) was so incredibly uplifting. I think of Proverbs 12:25 here:

"Anxiety weighs down the human heart, but a good word cheers it up." (NRSV)

We never know what anyone around us is experiencing today, yesterday, this month, this year, or this minute. Thus, we never know how we positively impact them with the simplest of interactions. How many times have I had the opportunity to reach out to someone around me and say something uplifting, but have not? What made this young woman say something incredibly positive to a total stranger? Why did she decide to speak to me? What made her step up? Why didn't she hold back, succumb to the temptation of staying in her comfort zone?

I don't know the answers to all those questions, but I know that she blessed me. I had anxiety weighing on my heart that day, and she cheered me up. And she inspired me.

Being more of an introvert in strange settings, doing what she did isn't always easy for me, but I am vowing to find one positive thing every day that I can say or express to someone. It can be a stranger, family member, friend...anyone. Will you join me?

If stepping outside your comfort zone feels overwhelming, or you can't muster the energy as you need comforting words for your own anxious heart, let one of GCUMC's 4 Pastors help. They minister to members and friends of Gold Canyon UMC. Please simply call the church office at 480-982-3776 and one of them will respond to your request. After hours, you may call or email one of the pastors directly. You will find their contact information in the bulletin on Sunday morning, (or emailed to you prior to Sunday worship), in the church office or the Pastoral and Congregational Care page of this newsletter.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women
FAITH • HOPE • LOVE IN ACTION

—by Carol Johnson, UMW President

My husband and I were recently driving in our community when we spotted a homeless man with whom we are acquainted through church. The police were parked near where he was sitting on the sidewalk, trying to fix one of his bicycle tires. It was well over 100 degrees by that time of day. We happened to have two bottles of cold water in the car. I suggested that we pull over and give him one of our bottles of water, but we didn't. Why? Were we afraid that our offer would be rejected? Did we feel the need to move along with the traffic? Were we afraid that we wouldn't have enough for ourselves?

In the July/August 2021 edition of the UMW response magazine, the Bible study article focuses on the Book of Revelation, specifically John's letter to the Laodicean church. John reprimanded the church members as being "neither cold nor hot", but instead lukewarm. John viewed the members as being neither strongly for nor strongly against anything. They were passive, inactive, and therefore, ineffective. As long as they were comfortable, they could sit back and ignore oppression. In the article, a comparison is made between John's letter and Martin Luther King Jr.'s "Letter From a Birmingham Jail." Both men called for believers to be moved from moderation into liberation, from apathy into work. Both men called for a movement from lukewarmness to the "heat and spice of transformation." Both men felt that answering the call of the Gospel requires Christians to act, as there is no moderation in the Gospel. Both men called us to act now; to "do justice now, love mercy now, journey with the Divine now."

As to our manner with the homeless man, my husband and I were lukewarm at best; we had good intentions, we empathized with him, we wished him well, but we didn't act. We did not follow the Gospel, nor did we answer God's call in our hearts.

The author of the response article posed some questions:

- If the author of Revelation wrote a letter to you, what would it say?
- Where do you note apathy or lukewarmness in your own life?
- What steps can you take to move to a position of spiciness, of passion, of liberation?

One thing I love about the United Methodist Women is that it calls us to act and it offers opportunities for us to act. Won't you join us? Won't you answer John's call?

Over the next few months, the Gold Canyon United Methodist Women has many opportunities to "get spicy" and act out your faith:

Saturday, 8/21: UMW Meeting with guest speaker Jeanie Owens, founder of Project Sleep Tight, a local project which assembles and distributes bags of needed items (blankets, books, stuffed animal, toothbrush) to children in crisis. They work with a number of shelters in the area: Child Crisis Center, UMOM, Welcome to America, Changing Lives Center for Women and Children, House of Refuge, Southwest Human Development, A New Leaf, Save the Family and Family Promise. Our members are contributing books and stuffed animals for children ages 1—8, and we will assemble the bags at the meeting. Fellowship 10:00am, Meeting 10:30am. Barnabas Room, Missions Center.

Saturday, 9/18: We will have guest speakers from the Matthew 25 Prison Ministry, including a former Perryville inmate who benefitted from having a pen pal through the ministry.

Sunday, 10/10: We will attend a church service at the Tongan United Methodist Church in Mesa. Following the service and fellowship time, we will have lunch at the Aloha Kitchen.

Sunday, 11/21: Our Annual UMW Bake Sale Fundraiser! Moneys raised will support the ministries of the UMW and also CAAFA (Community Alliance Against Family Abuse). Please consider donating baked goods or volunteering your time! I know there are some amazing bakers in our church!

Saturday, 12/4: Our Annual UMW Christmas Tea!... an exciting and fun event at 2pm in the Koinonia Room, to allow for more women to attend. We are already busy planning! The Tea will be one of our fundraisers this year, so there will be a $20 per person charge.

We continue to have Zoom meetings on the first Monday of every month (Zoom link is in the bulletin). We also continue to have our Reading Program get-togethers monthly (August 11, 10:00 am, Barnabas Room, Missions Center).

Last, but not least, our Circles continue to meet:

- Culinary Circle: Check the church bulletin for specific date and time, or contact Carol Johnson at caroljohnsonaz@yahoo.com or 602-750-2008.
- Matthew 25 Prison Ministry Circle meets monthly. Contact Cherie Creel for info: cheryljunec@icloud.com or 480-232-1584.
- Esther Circle (Bible Study): Will start meeting again in October. If interested, contact Carol Johnson at caroljohnsonaz@yahoo.com or (602)750-2008.
- Creation Care Circle: To meet again beginning in October. For more information, contact Rita Vadasz-Miller at RitaRKV2@aol.com.

FOOD BANK

Our Food Bank was blessed again by the support of the Arizona National Guard. Four Guardsmen unloaded a truck of food donations, and packaged frozen meats for distribution, as well as bagging a pallet of water for those in need. We could not do what we do within their help, or yours. Thanks for your continued support! Donations of canned goods and/or bottled water are always greatly appreciated, and can be left on one of the Food Bank carts located at one of the Church entrances, or dropped off at the Food Bank's back door during open hours of Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9:00am–Noon. Please call us at (480)982-6789 if you have any questions.

ST. ANDREWS CLINIC

St. Andrew's Children's Clinic is a volunteer-driven health clinic located at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Nogales, Arizona. Medical specialists provide much needed medical treatment to children that travel to the clinic from Mexico. Before Covid, the clinic was open the first Thursday of each month, except in July.

For over 16 years, GCUMC volunteers have traveled to the clinic in March & October, bringing donations of supplies, hand-made quilts, stuffed animals, and hygiene kits, with our last trip in March 2020 with 11 volunteers.

With the borders closed, the clinic has also been closed. The clinic staff has kept in touch with patients and their caregivers. St. Andrew's Clinic is getting ready to help support two cleft palate surgical clinics scheduled for September and October with 25 patients per clinic. Thanks to the generous support of people at GCUMC, through our Mission funds, we were able to help with a $750 donation in June, 2021. God-willing, volunteers from GCUMC will be making the one-day mission trip to St. Andrew's Clinic on Thursday, October 7th. The GCUMC Quilters provide beautiful quilts that are given to each child at the clinic.

We invite you to join us on this worthwhile mission trip as we caravan on route to the clinic — some people with personal vehicles, as well as the Church van if needed. Starting August 15th, there will be sign-up forms in the Sanctuary and Education Building lobbies, as well as our donation bins for the requested supplies needed at the clinic. Please consider donating any of these items: umbrella strollers, blenders, diapers, baby wipes, children's soft chewable vitamins, child size bibs, Pedialyte, small cans prune juice, backpacks, small personal size hygiene products. If you have questions about donating items, please contact Gail Crawford at (480)268-0918. If you would like more info on how to join us on this mission trip, please contact Sherry Hussein at (480)529-9621.

WEEKLY FOOD FESTIVAL AT GCUMC!

Every Saturday from 5:00pm to 8:00pm GCUMC is the gathering site of community food trucks in our North Parking Lot!

This weekly "Food Festival" is hosted by Rattlerun Events, and is a great opportunity to invite a friend(s) for a bite and support local businesses. If you have any questions about the food trucks, please contact Pastor Katharine in the Church Office.

If interested in becoming a food vendor please visit www.rattlerunevents.com and fill out a vendor interest form

ANGEL TEAM: After fourteen wonderful years serving as GCUMC's Angel Mission "Head Angel," Jane Hayes, Angel Team Coordinator, is looking for a trainee replacement. The willing person would team up with her to learn the ropes and carry this important mission forward into the future — with a multitude of angels happy to assist them. Volunteer Team Captains are also needed who would lead a small group (via phone, mail or email) made up of friends, neighbors, family, hiking, golf, tennis, walking, bible study, office mates, etc. Each group, under the direction of their Team Captain, then adopts a family who has been vetted by one of our partners: Sidewalk Sunday School, Project Help, or Hope Women's Center. If you have any questions, or would like to volunteer, please contact Jane Hayes at (602)320-5952 or JHayesFamily@msn.com.

SUNDAY COFFEE FELLOWSHIP GOODIES! If you have a knack for baking, we would greatly appreciate baked goods from your kitchen!

SUNDAY COFFEE FELLOWSHIP VOLUNTEERS: If you are a people-person and enjoy serving in the kitchen, we need you! Please contact Reta Wilson (480)288-0468 to let her know if you are able to volunteer... and be sure to tell her after which service you could work!

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS: Volunteers are needed who ideally work 1-2 times a month along with a partner. Curriculum and supplies are provided and set-up, and your job would be to show up, have fun with the kids, and teach about Jesus! If you have a heart for teaching children and a love of our Lord, please call the Church Office or email LClise@GoldCanyonUMC.org.

WORSHIP SERVICE VOLUNTEERS: We are looking for friendly faces who welcome church family members and new attendees to our church services through Ushering, Greeting, or at the Welcome Center. Training provided; to volunteer email AdmAssociate.GCUMC@gmail.com, specifying what you would like to do and which church service. Be one of our lights!

SINGERS & INSTRUMENTALISTS WANTED! In September we will resume worship service music as normal. If you haven't participated in the Choir or Orchestra in the past — and have a heart for worship through music — we encourage you to contact Dr. Ian Classe, Director of Music Ministries at (480)982-3776 or Ian.Classe@gmail.com. Those interested in serving in the Praise Band or Country Worship Music Team should reach out to David Ballard at DCBallardsAZ@gmail.com.

BITS-N-BYTES

THE BOOK SHELF

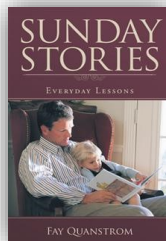

Life After Loss: A Practical Guide to Renewing Your Life After Experiencing Major Loss is the go-to resource for anyone suffering a major loss by helping to find positive ways to put together a life that is necessarily different—but equally meaningful. Available on Amazon and Church Office.

www.YourLifeAfterLoss.com

"Life Is Good—Once You Know How" by Terry Parsons & Jennifer Parsons is an uplifting gift for young adults, or grandchildren in your family who might be struggling to find their "niche." Available on Amazon, Kindle, and Nook. Check it out!

"Sunday Stories: Everyday Lessons" by Rev. Dr. Fay Quanstrom is a collection of children's stories illustrating how Scripture truths "live" in the life of a child. Available on Amazon, Kindle, Nook, Church Office & Welcome Center. For more info, go to www.FayQuanstrom.com.

COMPUTER ASSISTANCE

A church member, Craig Starks, has volunteered to help GCUMC members to set-up their computers to receive email, surf the web, and help with the basics of Microsoft Office, and is knowledgeable on a variety of useful programs. Please text Craig at (602) 723-0744, or email him at CST51@airmail.net if you would like his help.

RIDES TO WORSHIP

If you need a ride to church, please contact Tim Hammers at (330)534-3779 so he can get you on the rider schedule.

HOSTING OPPORTUNITY

Have you ever considered hosting a foreign exchange student? If you have any interest in this rewarding experience, or just have questions about the process, text/call Jennifer Rhine-Walker at (219)608-8939.

Garden Music, a CD recorded by Cindy & Wade Hoff with pianist, Mark Fearey, is available for a suggested donation of $10 at the Welcome Center or Church Office with proceeds going towards GCUMC's Chancel Choir.
