Organist: Dr. Ian K. Classe; Pianist: Marty Robison; Vocalist: Cynthia Hoff

PRELUDE..... Improvisation on "Sine Nomine" by Dr. Ian K. Classe

CALL TO WORSHIP ..... Rev. Gary Capen

We have gathered here to celebrate the lives of those who have served faithfully through the years and now share the triumph of Christ.

We affirm with praise and thanksgiving the goodness of our Lord. Let us rejoice in God's presence with us, in death as in life, among those who mourn as with those who now see Christ face to face.

In the midst of our grief we sing with joy, for God's love is over all that has been made.

Blessed be God's glorious name for ever.

HYMN #711 ..... For All the Saints (vs. 1, 2, 4, 6)

OPENING PRAYER ..... Rev. Fred Steinberg

OLD TESTAMENT READING ..... Psalms 121 ..... Pastor Katharine Keller

PSALM READING ..... Dr. David Worley

O God, you search me and you know me. All my thoughts lie open to your gaze. When I walk or lie down you are before me: Ever the maker and keeper of my days.

You know my resting and my rising. You discern my purpose from afar, You are with me beyond my understanding: In ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.

Before a word is on my tongue, Lord, You have known its meaning through and through. There is nowhere on earth I can escape you: God of my present, my past and future too.

Although your Spirit is upon me, still I search for shelter from your light. There is nowhere on earth I can escape you: Even the darkness is radiant in your sight.

For you created me and shaped me, gave me life within my mother's womb. For the wonder of who I am, I praise you: Safe in your hands, all creation is made new.

NEW TESTAMENT READING ..... 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 ..... Rev. Gary Capen

SPECIAL MUSIC ..... Song of the Saints by Pepper Choplin

ACT OF REMEMBRANCE ..... Rev. Fay Quanstrom

Let us pray: On this night we remember the mighty acts of your faithful servants, O God. Grant that we may have the courage and conviction which they showed in their lives. May we have the commitment to confess your name and reveal your glory in the world. We commend to your mercy all who have died, that they may rest in the arms of your mercy; and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

As the name of each of the honored dead is read aloud, a candle will be lit in their memory.

We remember and name this night: ..... (Please see back page)

PRAYER OF COMFORT ..... Rev. Fred Steinberg

Ever-living God, this day revives in us memories of loved ones who are no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy, when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.

Their memory is a blessing forever.

Months or years may have passed, and still we feel near to them. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, a duller pain abides; for the place where once they stood is empty now. The links of life are broken, but the links of love and longing cannot break. Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

We see them now with the eye of memory, their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.

Their memory is a blessing forever.

And we remember as well the members who but yesterday were part of our congregation and community. To all who cared for us and labored for all people, we pay tribute. May we prove worthy of carrying on the tradition of our faith, for now the task is ours.

Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

We give you thanks that they now live and reign with you. As a great crowd of witnesses, they surround us with their blessings, and offer you hymns of praise and thanksgiving.

They are alive forevermore. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER ..... Dr. David Worley

POSTLUDE ..... Improvisatory Elegy by Dr. Ian K. Classe
